are honest. Every mother of healthy children knows Mundell's Shoes. James Mundell put character into Children's Shoes, and his son John sustains the heritage bequeathed by his honest Father. But the prices are only half the usual.

The Men's Shoes and the Women's are both worth double, for they're honest. Shoes are a mystery, for lampblack and wax well rubbed down with a burnishing iron can hide many iniquities of construction.

Books worth reading. Certain business conditions make the price 20c; 5 FOR 90c. We have sold duplicates at 50c each and counted them real bargains. They

As one strolls through Wan-amaker's the echo of carpenter's BLANKETS The wings of Summer have hardly been folded, and sultry days linger in September, but Wanamaker's exploit Winter Blankets, and wise are the people that listen to the tale that tells of their cheapness.

It is not a fairy tale. There is a little Klondike in the wool for every prudent housekeeper.

Fine Mission Mills Blankets are offered at far less prices than you would pay at the mill-less by a big per cent, than you ever paid in this city before. And there are low-priced Blankets at $2 to $3 a pair, and medium quality Blankets, but they are all uniform in cheapness.

The ordinary dealer says that Wanamaker's Blanket man is a fool. Can even the biggest dealer control trade laws? Can Wanamaker buy at wholesale as cheap as he now retails? No! When present stocks are gone, up go the prices. The explanation is simply this,

Wanamaker's organization represents the retail buyer and Wanamaker's. Good bargains belong to the Public. When New York understands that the growth of this new business will be by leaps and bounds to a volume as vet unknown in any retail business. If you don't believe, study the Shoes and the Blankets and the
